Frequently Asked Questions / Town of Kingsville Committees

WHO can be on a committee?

If you are a resident of or a business owner in the Town of Kingsville and are 18 years of age, you are eligible to sit on a Town of Kingsville committee.

We're looking for skilled, driven, community motivated members for the next committee term. There are specific requirements for some committees, please see the Terms of Reference for the committee you are interested in.

HOW can I apply to be on a committee?

To apply you must complete the form of Application for Appointment to Board or Committee. Hard copies of the form are available from the Department of Corporate Services, 2021 Division Road North or you can submit your application online at www.kingsville.ca.

Submit hard copy applications to the Corporate Services Department.

WHAT are the expectations of committee members?

There are different expectations for each committee as some committees meet regularly and some might only meet a few times a year. You are expected to prepare for and attend meetings, as well as assist with and run events hosted by your committee. Please review the Terms of Reference for the committee you are interested in to determine the time commitment and scope of work that is required.

WHAT is the term for the committees?

Unless otherwise determined by Council, the term for each committee is four years. The appointment will be effective January 2019 and will end on November 14, 2022.

WHY should I sit on a Committee?

The Town of Kingsville offers a wide variety of different committees for volunteers with varying education, experience and skills. If you would be interested in providing advice, information and recommendations to Council and Administration on a variety of subjects please review the committees and their Terms of Reference.

If you're passionate about your community and you want to make a difference, please consider applying for a committee that interests you. Let's work together to make Kingsville a progressive and prosperous place.

WHEN is the deadline to apply to a committee?

All applications must be received by 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 20, 2018.
